Do you have a book that is not the same edition as the textbook required for your study program?

Try looking at our conversion chart webpage to determine if your book can still be compatible reading with your program. We have gone through a number of old editions of textbooks and found the equivalent page numbers for these books that work with any edition of our study guides. Check out our conversion tables at:
<http://www.wciu.edu/conversion.html>

Have questions? Feel free to e-mail us at:
orders@uscwm.org

There are some assignments for readings that are no longer available in print version. For these readings you should check out our online resources webpage. This webpage is where we place electronic copies of various readings that we have received permission for.
